

CTI (Cisalpina Tours International) Relocates to New Modern Offices at MSC Headquarters in New York City

As a trusted Travel Management Company, the TMC is further cementing its position as a global leader in corporate travel. Also serving the travel-designers community

March 31st, 2025, New York, NY

CTI - Cisalpina Tours International, a renowned Travel Management Company (TMC) and part of the MSC Group, is excited to announce its relocation to newly-renovated, state-of-the-art offices at MSC's North American headquarters, located at 420 5th Avenue, 26th Floor, New York, NY 10018. This move marks a significant step forward in providing enhanced services to clients and partners.

Having established its New York City presence in 2023, CTI has been awaiting the completion of the renovations to MSC's headquarters to move into this cutting-edge facility. The new office space reflects the company's commitment to efficiency, innovation, and sustainability, offering an inspiring and productive environment for its growing team. In addition to its presence in New York City, it is expanding its operations with international offices worldwide, further cementing its position as a global leader in travel management.

Furthermore, being a trusted business travel management company, in the United States of America, CTI - Cisalpina Tours International is developing its services to cater to the travel agent community. The company will now provide high-quality, tailor-made itineraries for individuals and small private groups, offering a blend of personalized service and expert destination planning.

«Our relocation to MSC's headquarters is a milestone for CTI - Cisalpina Tours International in the U.S. market - said Rosario Mariani, Chairman – and this move not only enhances our operational capabilities but also positions us to better serve both corporate clients and the travel-designers community with innovative and high-quality travel solutions».
